

Growing Our Cross-Border Network

In February of 2022, Arrive Logistics acquired Mexico cross-border specialist, Forager. The investment is another strategic step toward strengthening our cross-border services and technology offerings as we expand our footprint to deliver for your business both stateside and abroad.

Arrive Cross-Border Network

From developing technology that drives you forward to building a world-class service team that is committed to your success, every investment we make is designed to deliver on our promise of providing an unparalleled freight experience for your business. Our recent acquisition of Forager takes that promise to the next level, making it easier than ever for you to move freight to and from Mexico while receiving the same exceptional service experience Arrive provides stateside.
